

SEND ME

MEDICAL
Isaiah 6:8

Patrol Medic

Hosted by
M.L.E.O.T.A.
Pearl, MS

November 25, 2024
8 Hour Course
$125.00 per student

Maximum number of students: 20 *note that the first 10 applicants to register will receive a SOF-T Wide tourniquet

Course description: To provide training in life saving interventions that the patrol officer may employ to increase survivability in the encounter that involves the gunshot wound & other trauma such as the edged weapon, also managing the accidental contact with the unknown chemical agent

Topics Include:

- Bleeding control & tourniquet application
- Anatomy to protect & why we should
- Timers & switches
- Proper wearing of our body armor
- Types of wounds & their care
- Contents of the IFAK
- Placement of the tourniquet & IFAK

Exercises:

- Classroom
- Range drills
- Techniques of Tourniquet Application
- Tourniquet application with live fire
- Moving downed officer
- Range - 150 rounds of training ammo for handguns

Equipment:

- Handgun with 3 magazines
- Duty belt with holster
- Eye protection
- Ear protection
- Clothing appropriate for range exercise

Instructor Sandy Sanders

- EMS career began in 1983 basic EMT
- NREMT-Paramedic in 1991
- Achieved Assoc. Degree in Nursing 1997
- Employed with NMMC for Ambulance service since 1988
- Currently certified in CPR, ACLS, PHTLS, PALS
- 2010 became Tupelo Police Dept paramedic for SWAT
- 2012 attended CSAT Nacogdoches, TX - Tactical Medical Integration
- 2014 attended CSAT Nacogdoches, TX – Basic SWAT

